

Here's what people have said about Spinclusion:

STUDENTS:

- I learned how to make a good decision in tough times, work as a team, cooperate with others and most of all, I learned how to be a good friend.
– Grade 9 student
- Treat people nice and how you want to be treated. Include everyone.
– Grade 2/3 student
- People with disabilities are cool.
– Grade 7 student
- I learned that everyone is different, but we are all the same.
– Grade 7 student

TEACHERS & PARENTS

- It actually made students put themselves in the shoes of an individual who is excluded. It provided solutions and taught students about a variety of disabilities.
– High School Teacher
- I feel this was a useful session because the questions and activities were helpful and relevant and we discussed answers as a large group, heard a variety of answers and were able to learn new things.
– Summer Camp Staff
- Spinclusion has helped my daughter to feel accepted, welcomed and valued as a participating member of her class. It helped her classmates and teachers to understand, accept and even appreciate individual differences.
– Parent

SPINCLUSION

A game celebrating differences and including everyone

A fun, interactive game which increases awareness about inclusion with children and youth!

SPINCLUSION

What is it?

- A fun, interactive game that creates a welcoming and inclusive environment for children of all abilities and cultures.
- It teaches children and youth that everyone is different and has different abilities
- Promotes the idea of disability as another element of diversity
- An outreach tool to attract interest in inclusive programs

Who's it for?

Anyone who would like to create an inclusive environment:

- Schools (students grade 2- high school)
- Teachers and staff groups
- After school programs (mixed ages)
- Camps
- Youth recreation clubs

What will participants learn?

- To focus on people's abilities
- To think positively about differences
- To consider people's feelings

What's Included?

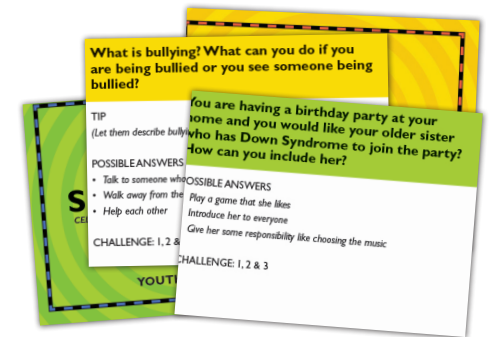

Each game includes instructions, a spinning wheel, question cards and all the supplies you need to facilitate the game.

YOUTH/ADULT EDITION (10+)

- Breaks down the barriers to encourage inclusion
- Creates opportunities to work together to form solutions to ensure everyone is included
- Celebrates diversity; differences, choices, abilities, language and culture

KIDS EDITION (7-9 YRS)

- Questions focus on inclusion, friendship, and empathy
- Children are encouraged to think about what people can do, not what they can't do
- Hands on activities (e.g. friendship tree)
